Indefinite Delivery/ Indefinite Quantity Contracts.

Providing solutions to federal customers.

Parsons PLUS creating a safer world

About Parsons

Parsons has been supporting customers with innovative design, engineering, environmental, construction, and professional services since 1944. We develop innovative technical solutions for the nation's most challenging and mission-critical facilities, infrastructure, security, and defense programs. Parsons serves its customers through numerous Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity (ID/IQ) contracts, Blanket Purchase Agreements (BPAs), and General Service Administration (GSA) schedules.

This listing of the ID/IQ contracts held by our government services business unit demonstrates a wide range of capabilities that allows Parsons to provide support through the entire life cycle of a project or program. The majority of the contracts are held by Parsons as sole prime. Where Parsons is in a joint venture or serving as a subcontractor, the contract number is denoted with an asterisk (*).
